

Liz Carnabuci is a senior executive at Medtronic, a global leader in medical technology.¹ She is widely recognized for her leadership in the Asia-Pacific (APAC) healthcare sector and her advocacy for diversity and innovation in the medical technology industry.

Current Roles and Responsibilities

According to the most recent industry announcements (as of late 2024), Liz Carnabuci holds dual Vice President roles covering significant regions:²

- Vice President, Enterprise Accounts & Services: She oversees this division for Japan, Australia, and New Zealand (ANZ).³
- Vice President, Diabetes:⁴ She leads the Diabetes business unit for Asia Pacific and Greater China.⁵

In addition to her corporate roles, she is a prominent figure in industry governance.⁶ As of November 2024, she serves as the Chair of the Board for the Medical Technology Association of Australia (MTAA), the peak body representing the medical technology industry in Australia.⁷

Key Contributions at Medtronic

- Care Continuum Strategy: Carnabuci has been a vocal proponent of the "Care Continuum" approach, advocating for a shift from purely reactive treatment to a model that integrates prevention, early intervention, and long-term disease management.⁸
- Diversity and Inclusion: She is a strong advocate for gender equality and workplace inclusion.⁹ Under her leadership, Medtronic ANZ has been recognized as an "Employer of Choice for Gender Equality" by the WGEA.¹⁰ She frequently speaks on leadership panels regarding the "Power of She" and women in MedTech.¹¹
- Business Continuity & COVID-19: During the COVID-19 pandemic, she played a critical role in ensuring business continuity for Medtronic in the ANZ region, managing supply chains to support local healthcare operations during the crisis.¹²

Professional Background

Before her current tenure at Medtronic, Carnabuci held several high-level leadership positions in the healthcare sector:¹³

- Becton Dickinson (BD): Vice President and General Manager.
- CareFusion: Vice President and General Manager.¹⁴
- Baxter Healthcare: Various commercial leadership roles.¹⁵

She has over 25 years of experience in the healthcare industry, with a focus on commercial excellence, strategic marketing, and talent development.¹⁶

Recognition

- Outstanding Achievement Award: She has received the MTAA's highest individual honor for her exceptional contribution to the development of the medical technology industry in Australia.
- Board Leadership: Prior to becoming Chair, she served as the Chair of the MTAA Public Affairs Committee (PAC) and Vice Chair of the Board.¹⁷
